The 2nd game was started in hard squall.
 From the beginning, Japan offensed aggressively and Shimizu who received a pass from Ichitani dribbled past GK and scored the first goal in the 2nd minute. After that, Japan showed 2 consecutive goals in the 9th and 10th minute, but the game was once stopped due to hard rain. 15 minutes later, the game was restarted and Japan took advantage of the lack of concentration of Singapore. Japan scored 5 consecutive goals in the 21st, 21st, 23rd, 24th, 27th minute.
 Even in the second half, the game went on with Japan's pace. They scored additional goals in the 40th, 42nd, 45th, 48th minute. The game finally ended with 14-0, adding 2 goals in the 55th and 58th minute. Followed by the 1st game, Japan won Singapore with a large margin.
