In the beginning, China dominated the game. From the counterattacks in the 7th and 9th minute, Japan carried a ball to the front line, but could not reach the circle. China, on the other hand, got the first PC in the 13rd minute, but could not break the ice. In addition, China had a decisive chance to score after dribbling past DF, but Japan #1 GK Kanameishi played a fine save on them. After that, China had a pace of the game to get PCs in the 19th and 35th minute, but never broke through Japan tight DF.

In the 2nd half, Japan repeated a skillfull passing, but could not finish shooting. In the 43rd minute, Japan got the first PC caused by China's hard DF, but could not open the scoring. In the 46th minute when China was gradually having a pace again, they have a big chance that an unmarked players had a ball, but #1 Kanameishi blocked it again. In the 52nd minute, Japan DF committed a foul and China got a PS chance. However, #1 Kanameishi saved this PS and Japan got out of this pinch . In a seesaw game, Japan got a PC in the 58th minute. #4 Matoba faked out and #14 Shimizu who was unmarked, received a pass and scored the first goal dynamically. Then, Japan stopped all of China's thrusts

Japan Women U18 won their first Champions at first-ever tournament final. In the 3rd placed match, India beat Korea 2-0. Moreover, #12 Nagai was named the most valuable player (MVP) in the Asia Cup.
